SESSION 6: OWN THE MIC

From Mic Check to Confident Expression

TODAY'S OBJECTIVE: THE SHIFT TO PERFORMANCE

EXPRESS IDEAS CONFIDENTLY

Deliver a structured presentation that commands attention and clarity.

DEMONSTRATE GROWTH

Show tangible improvement in clarity, confidence, and mechanics compared to Session 1.

TAKE OWNERSHIP

Transition from a student fulfilling a requirement to a speaker owning the room.

WHY THIS SESSION MATTERS

THE SYNTHESIS

The culmination of your entire speaking journey.

THE TRIFECTA

A practical combination of confidence, structure, and authenticity.

THE TRANSFER

The definitive shift of responsibility from the trainer to you.

ACTIVITY OVERVIEW

The Capstone Presentation

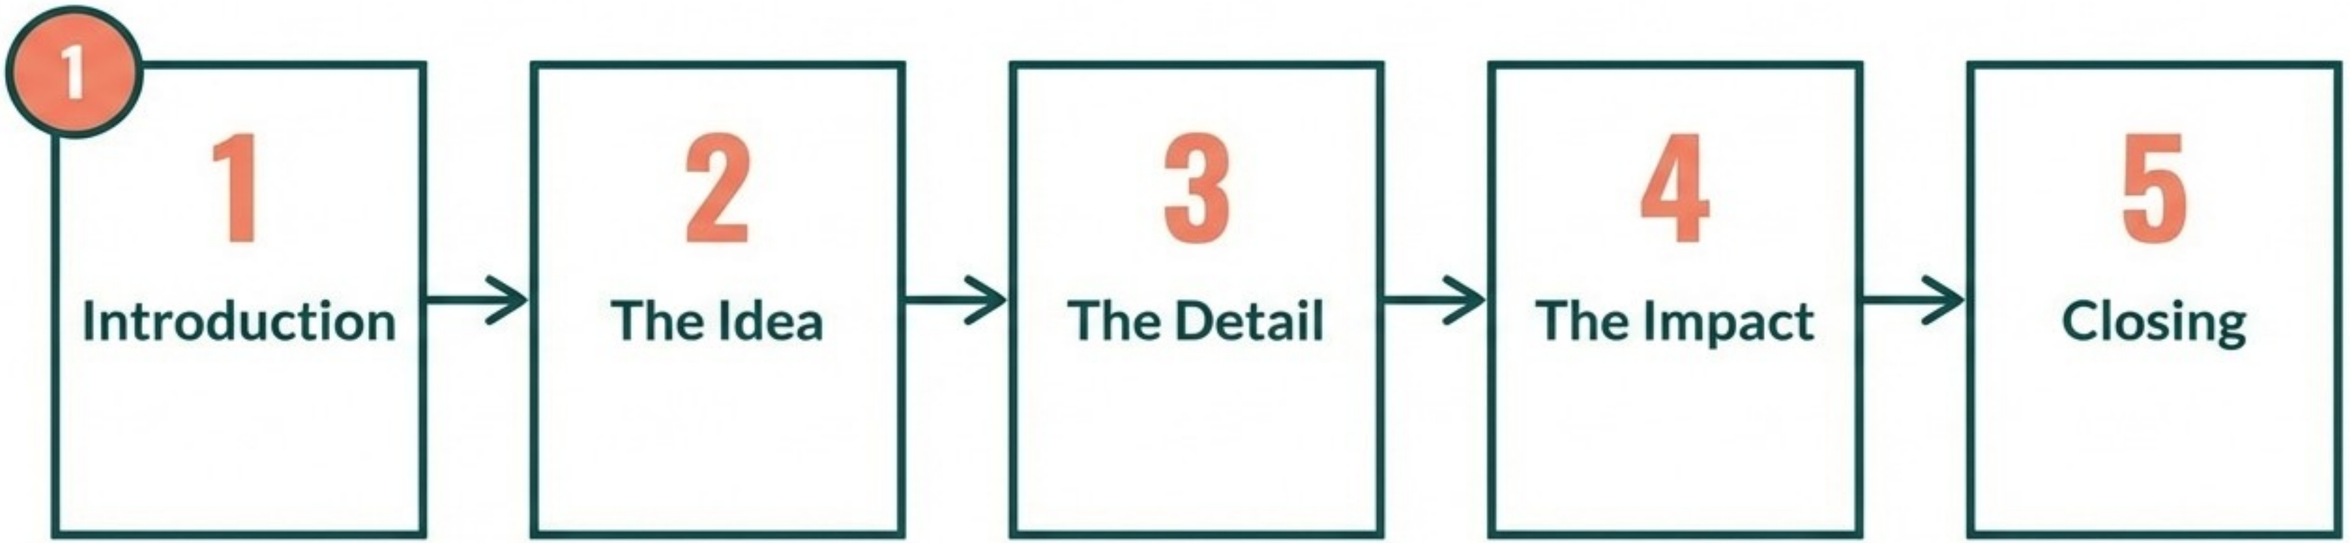

The Task: Prepare and deliver a standalone presentation.

The Focus Areas:

- Clarity - Is the message impossible to misunderstand?
- Confidence - Does the delivery match the content?
- Connection - Is the audience engaged?

THE STRUCTURE: A 5-SLIDE NARRATIVE

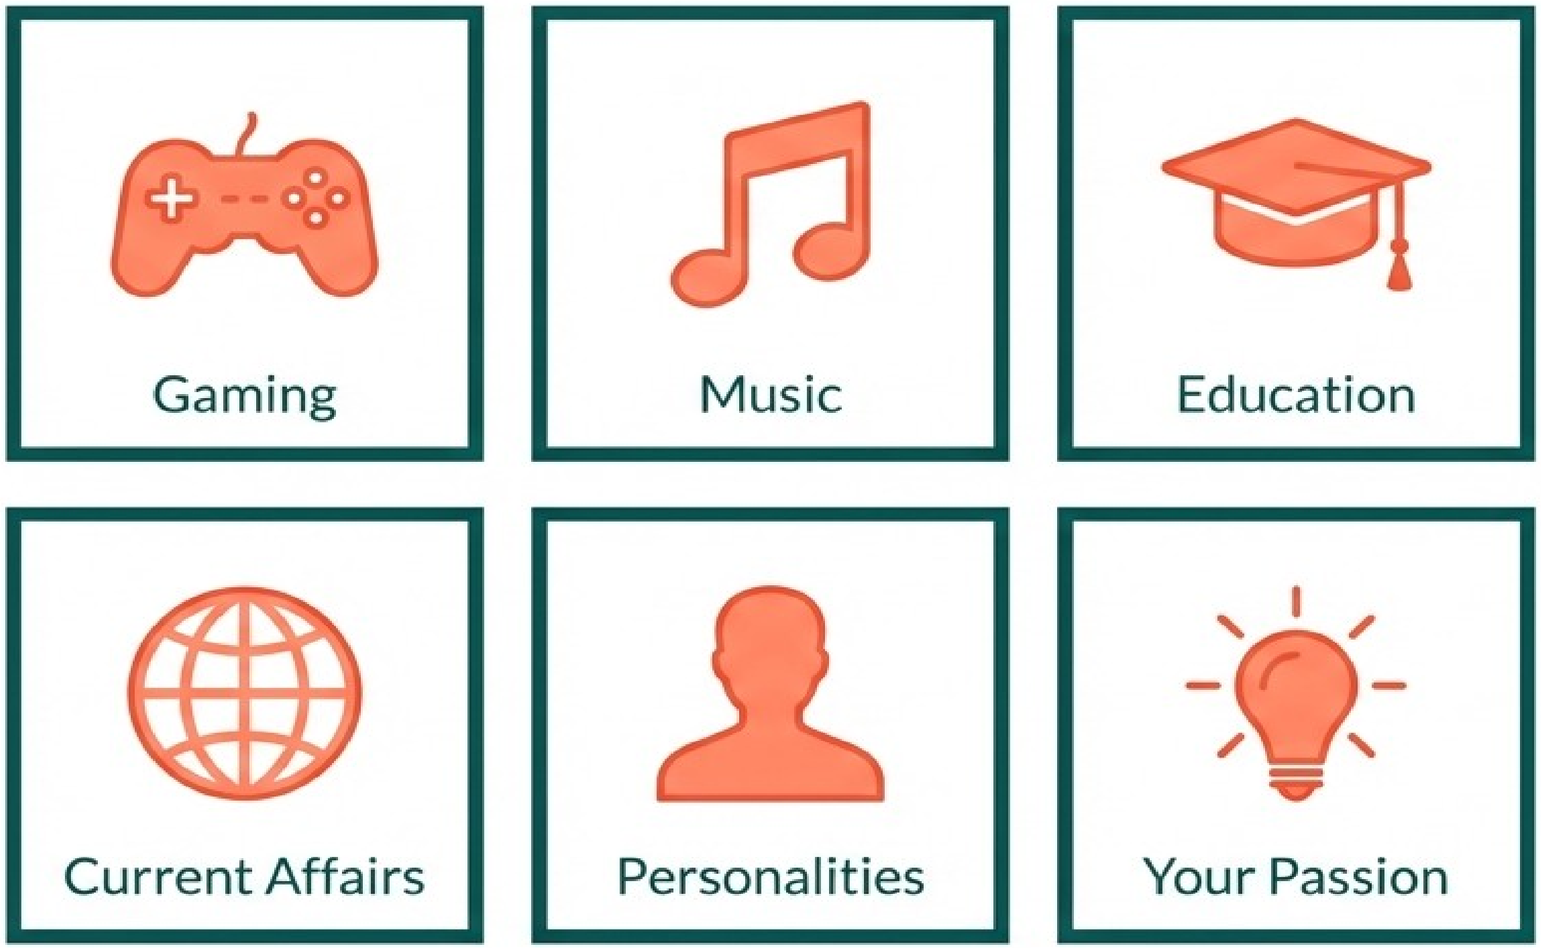

Requirement: Strict 5-slide limit.

Rationale: This constraint forces a clear flow of ideas and prioritizes impactful content over volume.

TOPIC SELECTION: CHOOSE YOUR PASSION

The subject matters less than the enthusiasm. Bring your authentic self.

PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

TIME LIMIT: 5 MINUTES

- The North Star: Focus on clarity of thought, not perfection of delivery.
- Recovery: Stumbles are allowed; confusion is not.
- Engagement: Talk to us, don't read to us.

THE ROLE OF THE TRAINER

- Minimal Intervention: The room belongs to you. We are stepping back.
- Learner Ownership: You control the flow, the tech, and the energy.
- Observation: We are here to witness your growth, not to correct your mechanics.
