Activity 1: Talking About Your Favourite Movie.

Focus: Expression & Imagination

Post-Production | The Edit
Activity 2: Developing the Hints.

Focus: Structure & Clarity

Activity 1: The Art of Expression

A story isn't just told; it is felt.

Focus your energy on expressive narration and vivid imagination. Your goal is to transport the audience directly into the scene.

Curate Your Content

Select a story that resonates with you. Personal favorites produce the best performances.

Any Movie or Netflix Series

Format

No restrictions—Horror, Comedy, Drama, Sci-Fi

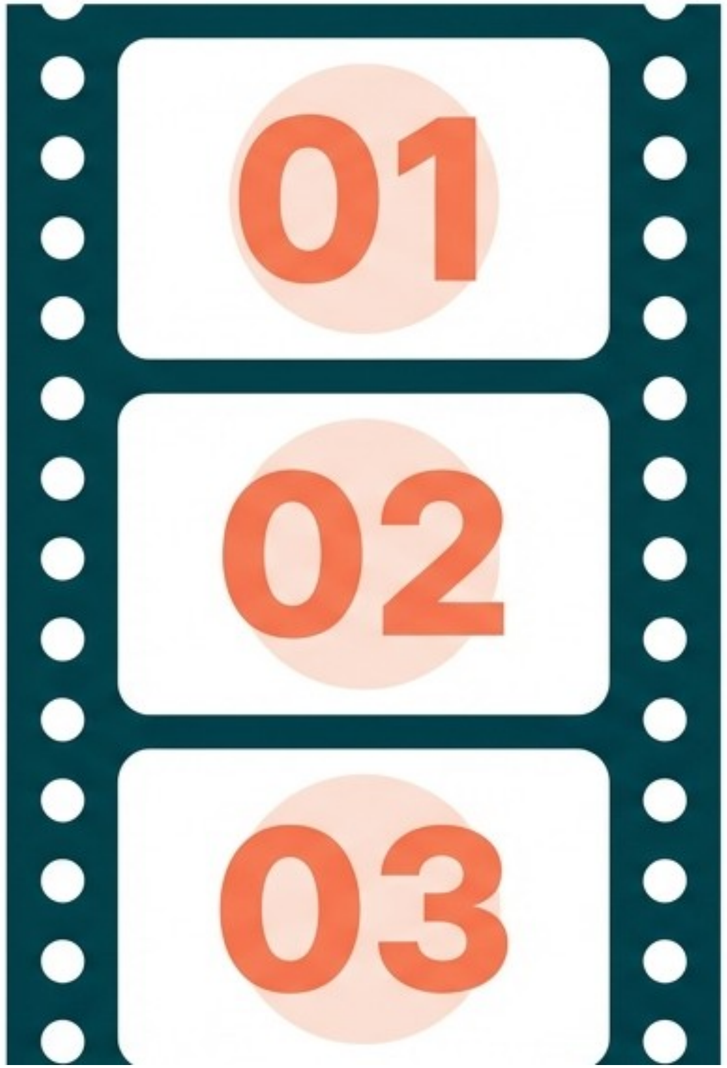

Genre

Pick something you are passionate about

Vibe

Lights, Camera, Action

The Setup

You have 2–3 minutes to set the stage.

The Delivery

Narrate the story as if it is happening right now, live in front of us.

The Performance

Use your full range—voice modulation, facial expressions, and physical movement.

Elevate the Production Value

Don't just say it. Show it. Enhance your storytelling with these creative elements:

Props: Physical objects that anchor the story.

Costumes: Dress the part to embody the character.

Role-Play: Step fully into the shoes of the protagonist.

Critical Acclaim: Activity 1 Outcomes

By owning the stage, you have unlocked:

Imagination

The ability to visualize and project a scene.

Confidence

Stronger stage presence through rehearsal and performance.

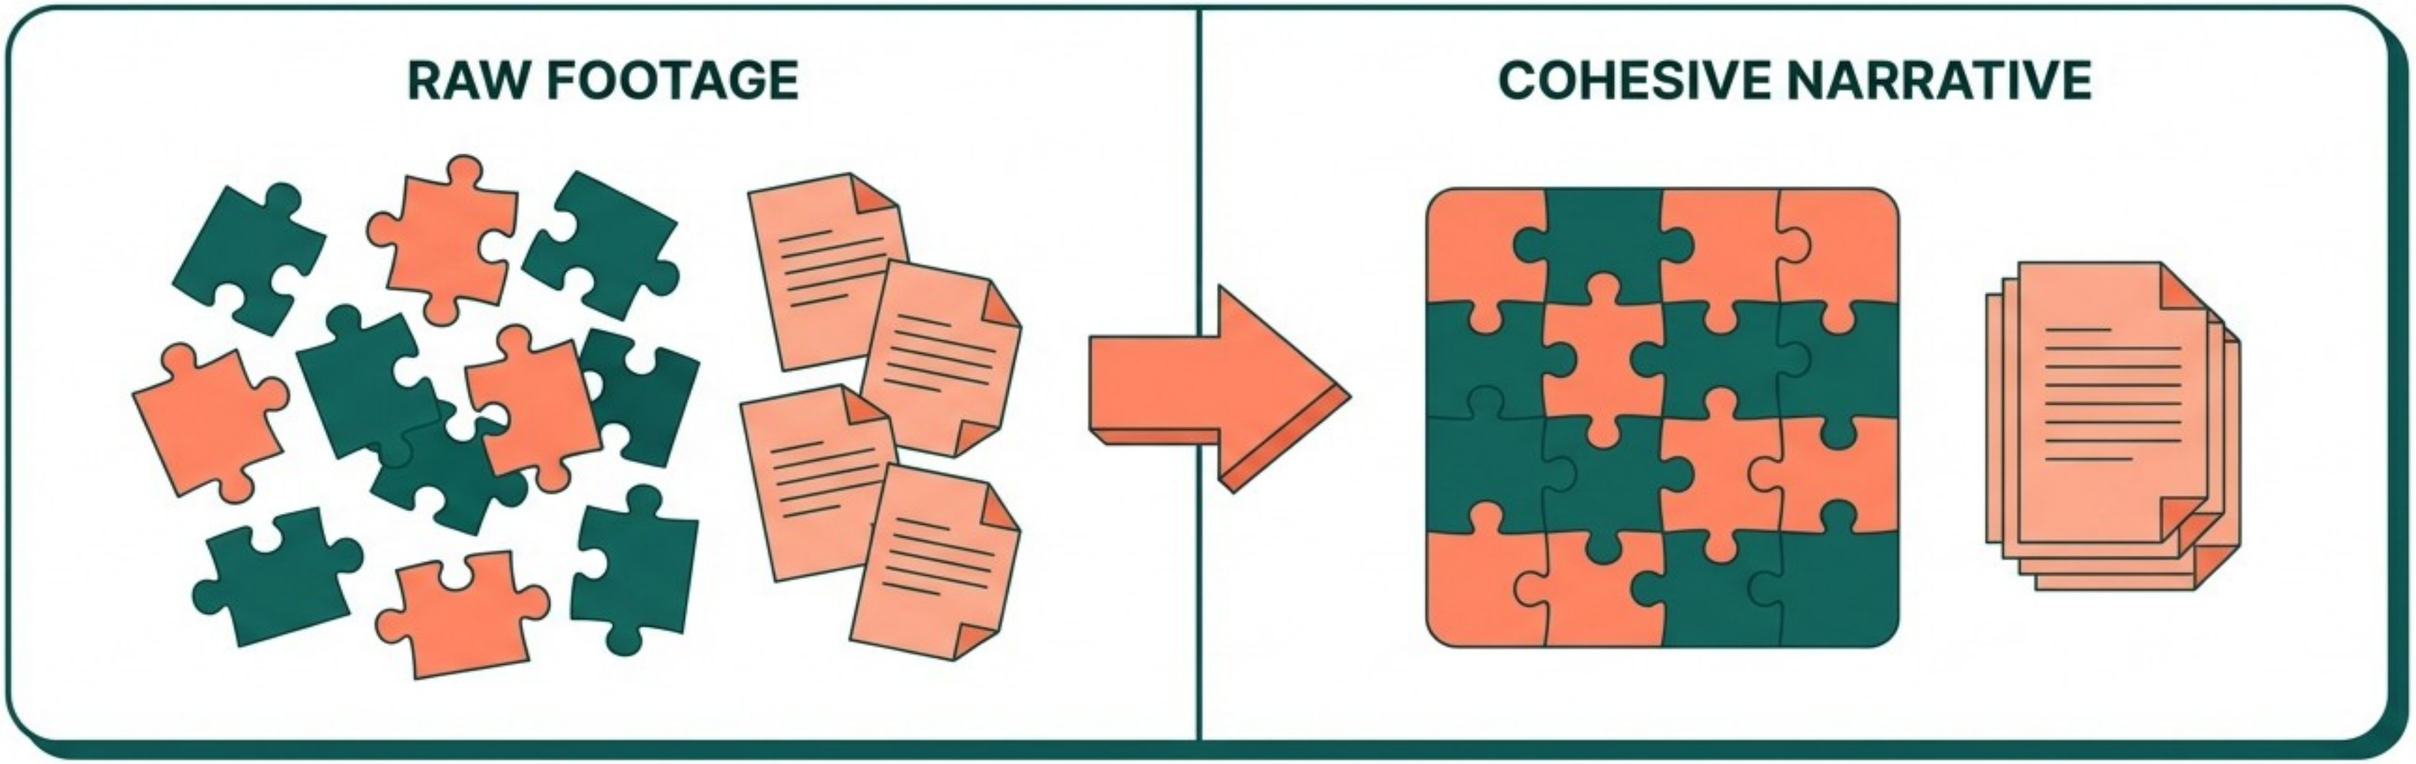

Engagement

Mastery of voice modulation to hold attention.

Activity 2: The Science of Structure

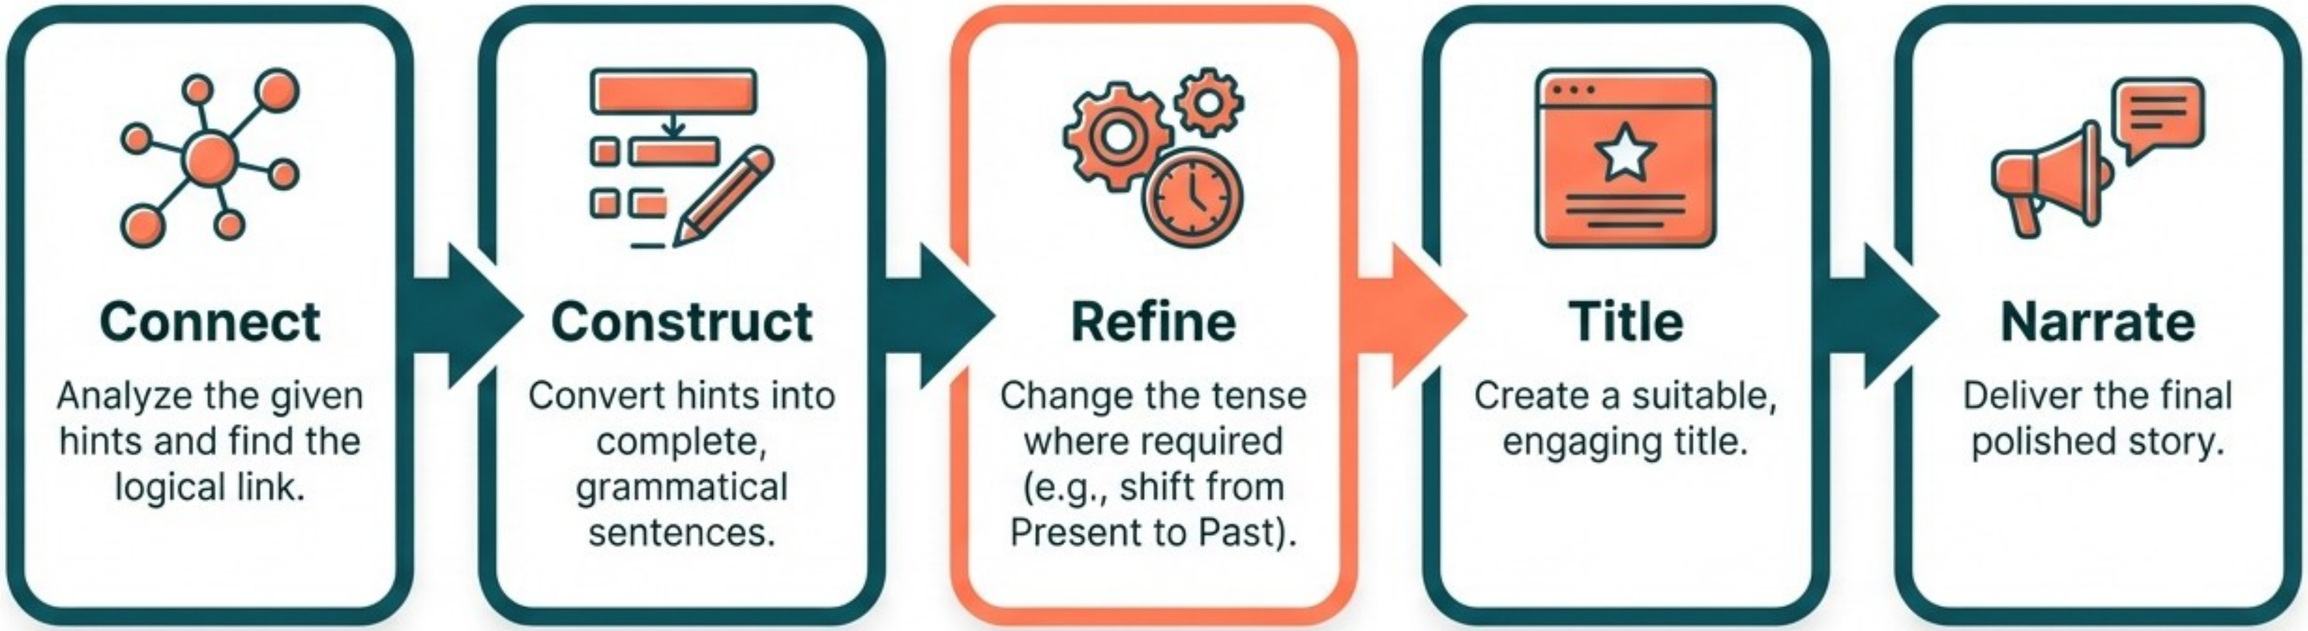

Turning raw footage into a cohesive narrative.

Now we move to the editing room. Focus on clarity, grammar, and structured narration. The goal is to transform scattered clues into a complete, logical story.

From Storyboard to Script

Follow this rigorous process to build your narrative:

Technical Mastery: Activity 2 Outcomes

By refining the script, you have sharpened:

Precision

Improved sentence formation and grammatical accuracy.

Articulation

Clearer delivery of complex ideas.

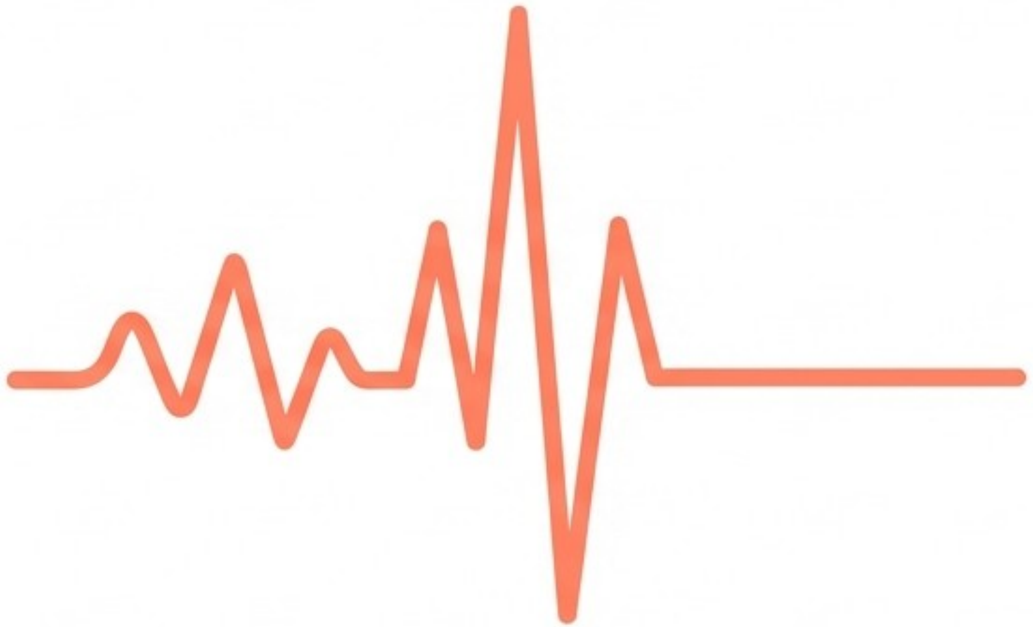

Logic

Enhanced ability to structure a narrative flow.

That's a Wrap

Key Takeaways from Session 2

Expression is what makes stories engaging.
Confidence grows when you perform.

Structure is what makes stories clear.
Clarity comes from precision and practice.

Great stories need both. Go out and tell yours.
